

Yes! I would like to be considered as a potential faculty member at the 2012 Maryland Writers' Conference, to be held October 20, 2012 at the University of Baltimore. The theme for this year's conference is "Writing in Times of Change." Speaker topics consistent with this theme may be given priority when selections are made. To apply, copy and paste the text on this page, along with the requested information, into the body of an email and send it to [conference@marylandwriters.org by May 1, 2012.]

I would like to (choose one or more):

Make a presentation ____

Lead a workshop ____

Chair a panel discussion ____

Provide your full contact information (name, address, preferred phone number and email):

---

---

---

Provide a brief description of your proposed topic (if a workshop, describe how you would conduct it; if a panel, identify proposed panelists):

---

---

---

---

Provide a brief bio (links to profiles, websites and published works encouraged):

---

---

---

---

---

Thanks! If you are selected, we will be in touch by June 1, 2012.